The Preeclampsia Foundation has marked Saturday, October 24, 2009, for Saving Grace: A Night of Hope, its 5th annual dinner and program benefiting the Preeclampsia Foundation. The theme for this year's event, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, is "Celebrating Our Voices, Remembering Our Stories," highlighting stories of hope, courage and inspiration – storytelling with a purpose.

The Preeclampsia Foundation is a U.S.-based nonprofit organization (501(c)(3) established in the year 2000 to fund and drive research, raise public and professional awareness, and provide support and education for those whose lives have been touched by preeclampsia and other hypertensive disorders of pregnancy. Preeclampsia affects 5%-8% of all pregnancies and can be fatal to mother and/or baby.

WHAT : Saving Grace: A Night of Hope: 5th annual dinner and pr

WHO : 1) Award-winning veteran Chicago broadcaster Sylvia Ewing to l

2) Dr. Michael Wolf, Director, Center for Comm

3) Honorees include Dr. James Martin, University of Mississippi, Joh

WHEN : Saturday, October 24, 2009
6 - 7 pm - Cocktail Reception
7 - 10 pm - Dinner, Program and Live Auction

WHERE : Renaissance Chicago Hotel 1 Wacker Place Chicag

TICKETS : $150/per person and can be purchased online at www.preeclampsia.org
a.org

The Preeclampsia Foundation is a U.S.-based nonprofit organization (501(c)(3) established in the year 2000 to fund and drive research, raise public and professional awareness, and provide support and education for those whose lives have been touched by preeclampsia and other hypertensive disorders of pregnancy. Preeclampsia affects 5%-8% of all pregnancies and can be fatal to mother and/or baby.

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO INQUIRE ABOUT SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES:
www.preeclampsia.org or contact Jill Siegel at (773) 301-7023 / jill.siegel@preeclampsia.org