

Preeclampsia Awareness Evening Set for October in Chicago

Tuesday, July 28, 2009

The Preeclampsia Foundation has marked Saturday, October 24, 2009, for Saving Grace: A Night of Hope, its 5th annual dinner and program benefiting the Preeclampsia Foundation. The theme for this year's event, which will be held in Chicago, Illinois, is "Celebrating Our Voices, Remembering Our Stories," highlighting stories of hope, courage and inspiration – storytelling with a purpose.

The Preeclampsia Foundation is a U.S.-based nonprofit organization (501(c)(3) established in the year 2000 to fund and drive research, raise public and professional awareness, and provide support and education for those whose lives have been touched by preeclampsia and other hypertensive disorders of pregnancy. Preeclampsia affects 5%-8% of all pregnancies and can be fatal to mother and/or baby.
